DANIEL TEXEIRA, Dalhousie University
Higher categories with adjoints via fibrations

We compare the Gepner-Heine proposal of (∞, ∞)-categories with adjoints via bicartesian fibrations to the usual definition, where every k-morphism is required to have both adjoints. We also apply this approach to n-categories and categorical spectra with adjoints, and show that the total category of a cocartesian fibration has adjoints whenever its base and fibres do.