
LUIS GOROSTIZA, CINVESTAV, Departamento de Matemáticas, Av. IPN No. 2508, San Pedro Zacatenco, 07300 México D.F.

Some questions on occupation times of branching systems

We consider occupation time fluctuations of (d, α, β) -branching systems. The long time rescaling limit processes have different properties in intermediate, critical and large dimensions (e.g., long-range dependence vs. independent increments, path continuity vs. jumps), and questions arise on interpretation of results in terms of the systems.