SAMUEL GITLER, Centro de Investigación del IPN
Moment angle complexes

Moment angle complexes are universal for toric varieties. There is a free action of a torus so that the quotient by this action gives you a toric manifold. We determine the stable structure of the moment angle complexes and their generalizations.