
RENATO ITURRIAGA, Cimat

Hyperbolicity and exponential convergence of the Lax Operator

The Lax operator gives the solution of the evolution Hamilton–Jacobi equation. It is a result of Fathi that in the Hamiltonian is autonomous the evolution process converges to solution of the static Hamilton–Jacobi equation. We prove that if the Aubry set is hyperbolic this convergence is exponential.