

---

STEPHANIE VAN WILLIGENBURG, University of British Columbia

A combinatorial classification of skew Schur functions

We present a single operation for constructing skew diagrams whose corresponding skew Schur functions are equal. This combinatorial operation naturally generalises and unifies all results of this type to date. Moreover, our operation suggests a closely-related condition that we conjecture is necessary and sufficient for skew diagrams to yield equal skew Schur functions.