
JIM COLLIANDER, University of Toronto
Strichartz refinements and concentration in NLS

Refinements of the Fourier restriction estimate have been used by Bourgain and others to prove mass concentration occurs in finite time blowup solutions of mass critical nonlinear Schrodinger equations. I'll revisit this argument and remark on certain quantifications and extensions.