

PETER OLVER, University of Minnesota

Lie pseudo-groups

A theory of moving frames is developed for Lie pseudo-groups, leading to new, explicit computational algorithms for determining their structure and the structure of their differential invariant algebra. The talk will focus on symmetry (pseudo-)groups of differential equations and variational problems.