
RACHEL PRIES, Colorado State University, Fort Collins, CO

Twists of representations of fundamental groups in positive characteristic

We study a twisting action on representations of fundamental groups of affine varieties in positive characteristic. For affine curves, we study how this twisting affects invariants of the representation. This yields applications to the subject of Galois covers of curves in positive characteristic.