
OCTAVIO MALHERBE, University of Ottawa

A categorical model of higher-order quantum computation

Higher-order quantum computation, in the sense of Valiron and Selinger, is a language based on the lambda-calculus and linear logic. In this presentation I will describe how to build some concrete models of such language using techniques from tensor category theory.