OLIVER ROTH, University of Würzburg
The Schramm-Loewner equation for multiple slits

We prove that any disjoint union of finitely many simple curves in the upper half-plane can be generated in a unique way by the chordal multiple-slit Loewner equation with constant weights.

This is joint work with Sebastian Schleissinger.