
PAMINI THANGARAJAH, Mount Royal University

Mathematics Minor for Elementary Education at MRU: An Innovative Collaboration with Education

At Mount Royal University, we had an opportunity to develop a minor in mathematics program for the Bachelor of Education, Elementary. For this program, we have designed core courses that are intended to give students a deeper understanding into specific concepts that they will be teaching in elementary math classes. In this talk, I will give an overview of this innovative program and the core courses.