JUNCHENG WEI, University of British Columbia
New Phases in Diblock and Triblock Copolymer Problems

I will discuss the existence and stability of several new phases in the Diblock and triblock copolymers. These include droplets, torus and double bubbles. The analysis involves properties of Green function in large modes and geometric nondegeneracy of perimeter problems.