

---

CRISTIAN IVANESCU, MacEwan University

Pedersen ideals of tensor products of nonunital  $C^$ -algebras*

We show that positive elements of Pedersen ideal of tensor product can be approximated in a strong sense by sums of tensor products of positive elements. This has a range of applications to the structure of tracial cones and related topics, such as the Cuntz semigroups. This is a joint work with Dan Kucerovsky.