ANDREW DEAN, Lakehead University
Classification of nonsimple real AI algebras

We shall discuss the classification of not necessarily simple real C*-algebras that arise as inductive limits of real forms of finite direct sums of matrix algebras over the continuous functions on the unit interval using Cuntz semigroups.

This is joint work with Luis Santiago.