SARAH PLOSKER, Brandon University
Quantum theoretic aspects of spin unitary matrices

We consider quantum theoretic aspects of spin systems, which are finite sets of anticommuting selfadjoint unitary matrices, and of complete order isomorphisms between the operator systems generated by two spin systems, a concept related to the quantum interpolation problem. We also connect our findings to recent developments on the topic of free spectrahedra and matrix convex sets.