

---

HARRY PETYT, University of Oxford

$\ell^p$  nonpositive curvature

Many groups can be effectively studied using metric spaces modelled on  $\ell^1$ ,  $\ell^2$ , or  $\ell^\infty$  geometry. Motivated by this observation, in this talk we consider cell complexes equipped with an  $\ell^p$  metric for arbitrary  $p$ . Based on joint work with Thomas Haettel and Nima Hoda.