

---

JANANAN ARULSEELAN, McMaster University

Computability in Continuous Logic with Applications to Operator Algebras

We study the use of computability theoretic ideas in the framework of continuous logic. To demonstrate the utility of such a study, we explain a few applications to operator algebras. We survey some recent work and new directions in the subject. This is joint work with Isaac Goldbring, Bradd Hart and Thomas Sinclair.