
HARMONY ZHAN, Worcester Polytechnic Institute
New connections between quantum walks and graph spectra

Quantum walks are quantum analogous of random walks on graphs. For both continuous-time and discrete-time quantum walks, the behavior of the walk is determined by certain spectral properties of the underlying graph. In this talk, I will discuss some new combinatorial problems arising from quantum walks, motivated by recent work on quantum state transfer and mixing.