
HAOYANG HE, Memorial University of Newfoundland

The curve complex as a coset intersection complex

I will talk about the relationship between the curve complex and a coset intersection complex associated to the mapping class group. In particular, the two complexes are combinatorially equivalent, quasi-isometric, and homotopy equivalent. Moreover, this combinatorial equivalence implies that the automorphism group of the coset intersection complex is the extended mapping class group.