
YANG HU, University of Regina

Realization of some Stanley-Reisner algebras and graph colorings

It is a classical problem in algebraic topology to decide whether a given graded \mathbb{Z} -algebra can be realized as the integral cohomology ring of a space. In this talk, we introduce families of Stanley-Reisner algebras depending on graphs and relate their realizability to the span coloring of the graph. This work is joint with Donald Stanley.