
GREG SMITH, Queen's University

Determinantal Equations

In this talk, we'll discuss sufficient conditions for the projective embedding of a variety by a complete linear series to be cut out by the 2×2 -minors of a matrix of linear forms. We will give examples of such determinantal representations for toric varieties. Interpretations for the higher order minors of these matrices of linear forms will also be examined.