CHRISTOPHER ATKIN, Victoria University of Wellington, New Zealand
Boundedness in some groups of homeomorphisms

The principal component of the group of homeomorphisms of a compact manifold M is sometimes bounded and sometimes unbounded in the compact-open topology; some suggestive examples and counterexamples will be presented.