FLORIN DIACU, University of Victoria
Celestial mechanics in spaces of constant curvature

This talk will discuss the history of the attempts to extend the n-body problem of celestial mechanics to spaces of constant curvature starting with Bolyai and Lobachevski in the 1830s.