

---

BILL CASSELMAN, UBC

An explicit formula for the canonical pairing

The asymptotic behaviour of matrix coefficients determines a canonical pairing between two Jacquet modules. I'll present here an explicit version for representations induced from parabolic subgroups in terms of the pairing for the inducing representations. This generalizes Macdonald's formula.