
LERNA PEHLIVAN, York University

Top to Random Shuffles and Number of Fixed Points

Number of fixed points is studied for random permutations and for some shuffles such as riffle shuffles. Considering that we have a permutation obtained after a number of top to random shuffles we provide the formulas for the expected value and the variance of the number of fixed points.