TONG ZHANG, Department of Mathematics, University of Alberta
Relative Noether inequality on fibered surfaces

I will talk about a relative version of the classical Noether inequality for minimal surfaces of general type. I will also talk about some applications of it to the slope inequality for semistable families of curves and the Severi conjecture for surfaces of maximal Albanese dimension. It is a joint work with Xinyi Yuan.