JASON MANNING, University at Buffalo
Recognizing 3-manifold groups

Given a finite presentation, one can ask whether it presents the fundamental group of a closed 3-manifold group. This question is undecidable in general, but I'll talk about how to solve the problem in "well-behaved" classes of presentations.

This is joint work with Daniel Groves and Henry Wilton.