
ANNA LEVIT, University of British Columbia

Ground states for mean field models with a transverse component

We investigate global logarithmic asymptotics of ground states for a family of quantum mean field models. Our approach is based on a stochastic representation and a combination of large deviation and weak KAM techniques. The spin- 1/2 case is worked out in more detail.