
PAUL MEZO, Carleton University

Three perspectives on endoscopy

I will discuss possible connections between three perspectives on the endoscopy of real groups. The first is the original formulation by Langlands and Shelstad. The second is related to the geometric parameterization of representations of strong rational forms due to Adams, Barbasch and Vogan. The third is related to the representations of rigid inner twists given in recent work of Kaletha.