ARTEM DUDKO, University of Stony Brook
The Julia set of the Feigenbaum map is poly-time computable

Let F(z) be the Feigenbaum fixed point of the period-doubling renormalization operator. We show that the Julia set of F is computable in polynomial time. The talk is based on a joint work with Michael Yampolsky.