
SHAWN XIANFU WANG, University of British Columbia Kelowna

Weak subdifferentials, rl-density and maximal monotonicity

We show that weak subdifferentials of a proper lower semicontinuous function are rl-dense if the function has its prox-bound being one. As a special case, we can prove Rockafellar's result that the subdifferential of a proper convex lower semicontinuous function is maximally monotone.