
NIKITA NIKOLAEV, University of Toronto
Spectral Networks and Moduli of Flat Connections

Recent works of Gaiotto, Moore, and Neitzke introduced a tool, consisting of objects called Spectral Networks, to compute certain invariants in quantum field theory. I will describe how these objects are constructed and their relation to the moduli spaces of flat connections.