
TRISTAN FREIBERG, University of Waterloo

Prime gaps: small, medium and large

We discuss the distribution of primes in short intervals from the point of view of the Cramér random model. We state two related conjectures and present recent work motivated by them. This work involves an incorporation of the Erdős–Rankin construction (large prime gaps) into Maynard’s sieve (small prime gaps).