JOSEPH ZIELINSKI, University of Illinois at Chicago
Compact metrizable structures and classification problems

We consider metrizable compact spaces equipped with closed relations. The natural notion of equivalence between such structures is homeomorphic isomorphism. Through this notion, we establish bounds for classification problems in Borel reducibility. Portions of this talk are based on joint work with C. Rosendal.