

---

YANNICK BONTHONNEAU, CIRGET - CRM

Resonances in strips: cusp manifolds

I will explain why for generic, negatively curved metrics on cusp manifolds, most of the resonances are contained in a strip at high frequency.

The main step in the argument is to build a semi-classical parametrix for the scattering determinant. This generalizes a theorem of Selberg.