
DAVID DUNCAN, McMaster University

Gauge theoretic invariants of surface products

In Donaldson theory, one counts instantons to obtain 4-manifold invariants. There is a similar 4-manifold invariant where one counts holomorphic curves in a certain representation variety. I will outline a proof that these invariants are identical, and discuss some applications to low-dimensional topology.