SANDRA CERRAI, University of Maryland, College Park
On the small noise limit for the 2D stochastic Navier-Stokes equation

I will study the properties of the quasi potential associated with a stochastic 2D Navier-Stokes equation, both in the case the noise is white in space and time and in the case the noise is colored in space. I will also study the validity of a large deviation principle for the invariant measures.