

---

JAMES DAVIES, University of Waterloo

Circle graphs are polynomially  $\chi$ -bounded

A class of graphs is  $\chi$ -bounded if there exists a function that bounds the chromatic number of a graph in terms of the size of its largest complete subgraph. We prove that circle graphs have a polynomial  $\chi$ -bounding function.

Joint work with Rose McCarty.