CAMELIA KARIMIANPOUR, University of Toronto
The sound of group actions

In this talk, we explore the connection between algebraic structures and music. In particular, we look at the action of certain groups on a subset of musical chords. Technology permits, we will listen to the chord progressions such actions induce and identify them in a few well-known classical pieces.