CAMERON STEWART, University of Waterloo
Sets generated by finite sets of algebraic numbers

We shall discuss the distribution of the numbers generated by a finite set of multiplicatively independent algebraic numbers of absolute value larger than 1. This generalizes work of Tijdeman on the distribution of integers which are formed from a finite set of primes.