

---

POSPISIL CHRISTINA, University of Massachusetts Boston
Generalization Theory for Linear Algebra I

An algorithm for multiplying and adding matrices regardless of dimensions via an embedding is presented. An equivalent embedding for a general determinant theory is also investigated (Part I: Appropriate Inverses for non-injective mappings in one dimension are presented). In future work there will be applications to physics and other natural sciences be explored.