

---

BENJAMIN NOTEBOOM, North Dakota State University

Decompositions of Symbolic Powers

Symbolic powers of ideals have been a recent topic of study for commutative algebraists, particularly how they compare to regular powers. In this talk, we'll use tools from graph theory to find a decomposition of a certain class of symbolic powers, then discuss how that decomposition can be used to calculate invariants of symbolic powers, such as the Waldschmidt constant.