
TYRONE GHASWALA, Université du Québec à Montréal

Covers and mapping class groups of orbifolds

This talk will be a 20 minute advertisement for treating branched covers of surfaces as honest-to-goodness covers of orbifolds whenever possible. The advertisement will feature a theorem relating the mapping class group of the covering orbifold to that of the base orbifold, and a theorem about braid group actions on free groups.

This is part of joint work with Rylee Lyman.