
FENG DAI, University of Alberta

Marcinkiewicz-type discretization for functions from a finite dimensional space

In this talk I will report some recent results on Marcinkiewicz-type discretization of integral norms for functions from finite dimensional linear spaces. In particular, I will describe the recent progress made by A. Prymak and myself on optimal polynomial meshes on convex bodies.