

---

SPENCER UNGER, University of Toronto

Equidecomposition and discrepancy

We survey some recent results about equidecomposition which rely on discrepancy estimates for measures that come from actions of rotations on the torus. These results come from joint work with Andrew Marks and with Anton Bernshteyn and Anush Tserunyan.