
ANDREW DEAN, Lakehead University

Classification problems concerning real structures and gradings

We shall give a survey and update on progress for problems concerning classification of real structures and gradings on C^* -algebras, and their associated range of invariant problems.