
FRANCISCO TORRES DE LIZUR, Universidad de Sevilla

Symmetries of eigenfunctions

The symmetry conjecture asks whether, on a closed Riemannian manifold, the signs of laplace eigenfunction in the $\lambda \rightarrow \infty$ limit are evenly distributed. In the talk I will report on recent progress on this question and related problems on the properties of the value distribution of eigenfunctions. This is joint work with Ángel David Martínez.