

---

RAMÓN ZÁRATE, UBC

Inverse problems via variational methods.

We present a general variational method for recovering non-linearities from prescribed solutions for certain types of PDEs which are not necessarily of Euler–Lagrange type, including parabolic equations. The approach can be used for optimal control problems.