

DAVID KRIBS, University of Guelph
On graph algebras and related things

In this talk I will discuss recent joint work with Elias Katsoulis on the class of operator algebras associated with directed graphs. Time permitting, I will also outline a unified framework for studying both graph algebras and the causal history formalism from quantum gravity.