

---

LARISSA HORN, Wake Forest University
Tensor Products of Jacobson Rings

Recall that a ring is called Jacobson if every prime image is semiprimitive. We show that the tensor product of a Jacobson ring with a simple algebra is still Jacobson. This extends results of Krempa and broadens a set of examples given by Jordan.